Pray with fervency and strength for the following:

• Whitefield Seminary, and other seminaries: That they would be a competent training ground for ministers, that they would train according to the pure doctrines of Scripture. Pray for diligence, orthodoxy, and integrity for future ministers. Pray for the presbyteries that have men under care, that they would diligently train and supervise their candidates according to 2 Timothy 2:1ff.

• Officers and Members of Reformed Presbyterian Churches, & of the RPCGA

That ministers and elders would be sound in faith, true in preaching Christ, true in preaching God's Word. Pray that the Lord would keep our pastors and teachers from error. Pray for the success of the Gospel and the calling of the elect by Gospel preaching here and abroad. Pray that we as a people would learn to love holiness, and to forsake and mortify our sins, and that we would be free from soul-damaging error. Pray that the Lord would make our catechetical studies, and family worship, effectual in capturing our thoughts for Christ and His Kingdom.

For Rain: Praise for the good rains the Lord has sent, and pray for more rain.

CCRPC: Pray for one another! Pray for your Pastor and your Elders! Pray for a building for us, and for a full-time Pastor. Pray that the Lord would bring others of like faith to CCRPC, and that we would be forward as a congregation to invite others to Church. Be in prayer especially for a building at this time, seeing that the Lord has placed two opportunities within our reach at present. Pray for wisdom for the elders as they sort through the pros and cons regarding both buildings that the Lord would give wisdom. In our prayers for the officers of the Church, remember MR. Betsch and Mr. Dillard as they prepare for their exams the second week in September. Pray that their preparation would be profitable and fruitful. Pray for the examiners, that they would rightly ascertain the readiness of these men for office.

Our Name:

Christ: Our only Surety and Mediator, Sacrifice and Substitute, Righteousness and Sanctification; the Wisdom of God, the Logos of God, triumphing as the Second Adam where the first Adam fell, God, the Second Person of the Holy Trinity

Covenant: The means whereby the Triune God has brought His people into everlasting and gracious communion with Himself, unilaterally, uniting them to Christ, the only Mediator of the Covenant of Grace

Reformed: Teaching the Biblical Doctrines of God's Sovereignty, of Divine Monergism in our redemption, of His initiating Grace and Salvation as the only hope of man to escape eternal judgment; the sufficiency of the Scriptures, and the "righteousness of God which is by the faith of Jesus Christ" alone, preached and restored to the Church at large during the Protestant Reformation

Presbyterian: Confessing and practicing the Biblical doctrines of Church government, of a broader authority than that of the local congregation, held in a plurality of elders, and those distinctively taught in the Westminster Standards, 1647

Church: The Visible people of God, Called out of the world as His people, under Christ's government and discipline administered by Elders, called as saints to serve Him together with their children regardless of age; and testifying to His invisible Church, the whole number of the elect that have been, are, or shall be gathered into one under Christ the Head.
