Pray with fervency and strength for the following:

- Whitefield Seminary, and other seminaries: That they would train according to the pure doctrines of Scripture. Pray for the presbyteries that have men under care, that they might know their fitness not only doctrinally, but as men of uprightness also. Pray for the elders and deacons in our Presbytery that are completing their studies, that the Lord would grant them diligence and time. Pray for tender and pastoral hearts for all of our officers and men in training. Pray for patience for our men as they train, that they might pursue their studies delighting in those principles they're learning as they read.

- Officers and Members of Reformed Presbyterian Churches, & of the RPCGA

That ministers and elders would be sound in faith, true in preaching Christ. Pray that the Lord would bless the fruit of the preached Word. Pray for the success of the Gospel and the calling of the elect by Gospel preaching here and abroad. Pray that we as a people would learn to love obedience, and to identify, forsake, and mortify our sins, and that we would be free from soul-damaging error and practice. Pray also that we would love one another more and more, and seek to serve one another. Pray that we would be a humble people.

For Rain: Praise for the good rains the Lord has sent, and pray for more rain.

CCRPC: Pray for one another! Pray for your Pastor and your Elders! Pray that our pastor might be able to labor full time in the ministry. Pray that the Lord would bring others of like faith to CCRPC, and that we would be forward as a congregation to invite others to Church. Pray that we would be content in our stations, yet eager to learn the truths of our most holy faith, and that we might continue unhindered in our desire to the know the Lord and His Word. Pray that we would be disabused of the idea that our current level of knowledge is sufficient, and our current practice acceptable. Pray that we might seek to reform and to advance in our knowledge and growth in grace, and that we might seek greater sanctification in knowledge and practice. Pray that we might be delivered from what the Bible calls "our stiff necks", from being unteachable, and that we would gladly receive the Word, the counsel of our wise Christian friends, and seek to grow thereby.

Our Name:

Christ: Our only Surety and Mediator, Sacrifice and Substitute, Righteousness and Sanctification; the Wisdom of God, the Logos of God, triumphing as the Second Adam where the first Adam fell, God, the Second Person of the Holy Trinity

Covenant: The means whereby the Triune God has brought His people into everlasting and gracious communion with Himself, unilaterally, uniting them to Christ, the only Mediator of the Covenant of Grace

Reformed: Teaching the Biblical Doctrines of God's Sovereignty, of Divine Monergism in our redemption, of His initiating Grace and Salvation as the only hope of man to escape eternal judgment; the sufficiency of the Scriptures, and the "righteousness of God which is by the faith of Jesus Christ" alone, preached and restored to the Church at large during the Protestant Reformation

Presbyterian: Confessing and practicing the Biblical doctrines of Church government, of a broader authority than that of the local congregation, held in a plurality of elders, and those distinctively taught in the Westminster Standards, 1647

Church: The Visible people of God, Called out of the world as His people, under Christ's government and discipline administered by Elders, called as saints to serve Him together with their children regardless of age; and testifying to His invisible Church, the whole number of the elect that have been, are, or shall be gathered into one under Christ the Head.
